The abstract section includes the following text:

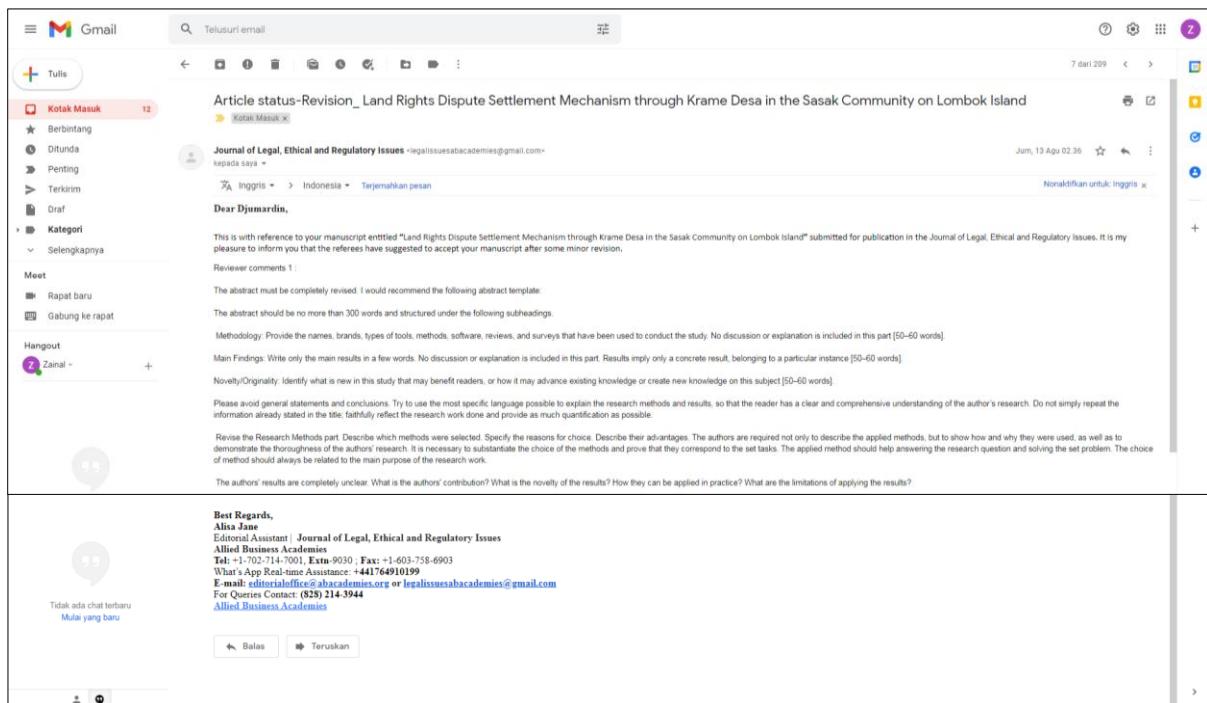

The objectives of this study are: (1). To know and understand the mechanism for resolving land rights disputes through Krama Desa in the Sasak community on Lombok Island, (2). To know and understand the legal power of the Krama Desa Decision in resolving disputes over land rights in the Sasak Community on Lombok Island. This type of research used in this research is empirical legal research, with a jurisdictional approach. The results of this research can be stated that: 1. The mechanism for resolving disputes over land rights through Krama Desa in the Sasak community on Lombok Island is by means of mediation. The settlement is carried out by Krama Desa together with the Village Head in the Krama Desa Assembly session. 2. The legal power of decisions made by Krama Desa in the form of a peace deed containing an agreement from both parties, including in an out-of-court peace deed. The strength of the peace deed decision will be the same as: The law for those who make it as regulated in Article 133B of the Indonesian Criminal Code.
