Dear Editor,

Thank you for the information on the results of our review manuscript entitled Predicting Bond Strength of Steel Reinforcement in Self Compacting Concrete (SCC) Using Adaptive Neuro-Fuzzy Inference System (ANFIS).

We have added some notes from editors and reviewers in the following article

1. The results of the similarity index was checked with turnitin software are less than 18%
2. The description of the range compressive strength class, the diameter of steel reinforcement and development of length had been explained in the results and discussion of point 4.1
3. The conclusion has been written in more detail

Please find attached files : file manuscript revision, similarity index and the publication agreement .

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

Sincerely yours

Dr. Ngudiyono, ST., MT.

Dear Editor,

According to the online publication in https://www.hrpub.org/journals/jour\_archive.php?id=48&iid=1900, I haven't seen our article published online in Vol 9 No 5. For information, I have transferred the publication fee of $ 480 and wire transfer surcharge $ 35, so the total was transferred $ 515. I have also sent proof of transfer and from the last email from the editor, the payment has been received.

Please give me information about this problem. Thank You Very Much
