SCImago Team

Dear Chinemerem, thank you very much for your participation. Our data come from Scopus/Elsevier, which offers an annual copy of their database. We understand that, since the date indicated by Scopus/Elsevier, the journal is no longer indexed in its database. While the citation window is still active, we can show indicators of the journal (up to three years). Best Regards, SCImago Team

Dear Mohamed,
thank you for your comment.

Our data source is Scopus, SCImago doesn't participate in the journal's selection. SCImago has no authority to include or exclude SJR journals. We just show the data provided in the latest update by Scopus. Please contact Scopus Support regarding this matter here:
