Dear Dr Rosyidi,

Thank you for sending your manuscript An Extremely Rare Case: Transorbital Penetrating Intracranial Injury by Wooden Foreign Body for consideration to Annals of Medicine and Surgery. Please accept this message as confirmation of your submission.

When should I expect to receive the Editor's decision?

For Annals of Medicine and Surgery, the average editorial time (in weeks) from submission to first decision is: 5.07 and from submission to final decision is: 10.13.

What happens next?

Here are the steps that you can expect as your manuscript progresses through the editorial process in the Editorial Manager (EM).

1. First, your manuscript will be assigned to an Editor and you will be sent a unique reference number that you can use to track it throughout the process. During this stage, the status in EM will be "With Editor".
2. If your manuscript matches the scope and satisfies the criteria of Annals of Medicine and Surgery, the Editor will identify and contact reviewers who are acknowledged experts in the field. Since peer-review is a voluntary service, it can take some time but please be assured that the Editor will regularly remind reviewers if they do not reply in a timely manner. During this stage, the status will appear as "Under Review".

Once the Editor has received the minimum number of expert reviews, the status will change to "Required Reviews Complete".

3. It is also possible that the Editor may decide that your manuscript does not meet the journal criteria or scope and that it should not be considered further. In this case, the Editor will immediately notify you that the manuscript has been rejected and may recommend a more suitable journal.

For a more detailed description of the editorial process, please see Paper Lifecycle from Submission to

Dear Dr Rosyidi

I am pleased to inform you that the status of your submission has now progressed to: 'Required reviews complete'.

This status means that I have received the minimum number of required reviews, which I will now evaluate in order to make a decision on your paper.

If the current reviews conflict with one another or are not detailed enough, I may need to seek the opinion of another reviewer to make a fair and informed conclusion about your paper. For this reason the status of your paper may change back to 'under review' for a short period of time.

As soon as the final editor's decision can be made, you will be notified via email.

I appreciate your understanding of the time required to provide you with a thorough decision and comments on your submission.

Kind regards,

Annals of Medicine and Surgery

Reviewers' and Managing Editor comments:

Managing Editor

Please can you make the following changes/checks:

1. Please ensure your case report is compliant with the SCARE Guidelines 2020: <http://www.scareguideline.com> and submit a completed SCARE 2020 checklist.

Please pay particular attention to the following criteria which are often missed:

- Who performed the procedure? (item 9d)
- patient perspective (item 12)
- Drug history, family history including any relevant genetic information, and psychosocial history (item 5d)
- Where relevant - intervention adherence and tolerability (item 10c)
- Post-intervention considerations (item 9f)

Answer :

Thanks Sir. our manuscript is adjusted to the rules and guidelines in the journal and attachment the the SCARE Guidelines 2020

2. Please also ensure you state that the work has been reported in line with the SCARE 2020 criteria:

Agha RA, Franchi T, Sohrabi C, Mathew G, for the SCARE Group. The SCARE 2020 Guideline: Updating Consensus Surgical CAse REport (SCARE) Guidelines, International Journal of Surgery 2020;84:226-230.

Answer :

Thanks Sir. I've added it to the manuscript, reference and attachment the SCARE Guidelines 2020

3. Please cite the SCARE 2020 paper above in your text in the methods section and the add the reference to your references section.

Answer :

Thanks Sir. I've added it to the manuscript, reference and attachment the SCARE Guidelines 2020

4. Please ensure you submit a structured abstract with sub-headings as follows: Introduction and importance, Case presentation, clinical Discussion, Conclusion

Answer :

Thanks Sir. I've added it to the manuscript (Abstract)

5. Can you also please ensure you go through the entire manuscript and check the spelling, grammar and syntax and ensure the language is concise. If you need our

Answer :
Thanks Sir. I've added it to the manuscript

Reviewers' comments:

Reviewer #1: This is a rare case but we do not see any special thing with this case report. We still think that you should give more reason to choose your approach to move the wooden foreign body. Please explain more why you choose this approach it makes this case report more valuable and useful as literature references.

Answer:

thank you for your comment. We decided to use temporobasal approach not only because it was the closest approach to foreign body position but also to get clear visualization of foreign body through the intracranial cavity and also it is good for cleaning up the wood fragments that entered the intracranial cavity

Reviewer #4: An interesting article and something I have not come across in the UK in 15 years of practice or working in South Africa. More often metal fragments or other shrapnel.

The many articles; <https://www.ajronline.org/doi/pdf/10.2214/ajr.178.3.1780557> but no cranial imaging. The other is <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S1008127516300724>.

Worth publication of the case report.

I would ask the authors to please replace the often used work, "scarier", it is either more scary or I would use challenging or frightening thank you for your comment. I considered to add some literatures that you referred to the references. About the word "scarier" maybe there is little miscommunication. I used word "scarcer" which means rarer, not "scarier" which means frightening. Thank you very much.

Answer:
