Dear Dr Rosyidi,

Thank you for sending your manuscript BACTERIAL INFECTION AND ANTIBIOTIC RESISTANCE PATTERN IN OPEN FRACTURE CASES IN MATARAM, INDONESIA for consideration to Annals of Medicine and Surgery. Please accept this message as confirmation of your submission.

When should I expect to receive the Editor's decision?

For Annals of Medicine and Surgery, the average editorial time (in weeks) from submission to first decision is: 5.07 and from submission to final decision is: 10.13.

What happens next?

Here are the steps that you can expect as your manuscript progresses through the editorial process in the Editorial Manager (EM).

1. First, your manuscript will be assigned to an Editor and you will be sent a unique reference number that you can use to track it throughout the process. During this stage, the status in EM will be "With Editor".
2. If your manuscript matches the scope and satisfies the criteria of Annals of Medicine and Surgery, the Editor will identify and contact reviewers who are acknowledged experts in the field. Since peer-review is a voluntary service, it can take some time but please be assured that the Editor will regularly remind reviewers if they do not reply in a timely manner. During this stage, the status will appear as "Under Review".

Once the Editor has received the minimum number of expert reviews, the status will change to "Required Reviews Complete".

3. It is also possible that the Editor may decide that your manuscript does not meet the journal criteria or scope and that it should not be considered further. In this case, the Editor will immediately notify you that the manuscript has been rejected and may recommend a more suitable journal.

For a more detailed description of the editorial process, please see Paper Lifecycle

Reviewer(s) comments:

Managing Editor

Please can you make the following changes/checks:

1) Ensure your work is fully compliant with the STROCCS 2021 criteria www.strocsguideline.com, which should be cited within the methods section of your article and please submit a completed STROCCS checklist stating the page numbers where you completed each item (your work will be returned if this is not done).

Please also ensure your methods section states that the work has been reported in line with the STROCCS criteria and cite the paper as follows:

Mathew G and Agha R, for the STROCCS Group. STROCCS 2021: Strengthening the Reporting of cohort, cross-sectional and case-control studies in Surgery. International Journal of Surgery 2021;96:106165.

2) Please ensure you submit your work with a Research Registry UIN: e.g. from www.researchregistry.com – it can't progress without being registered – even if its retrospective research. Please ensure you also state your registration unique identifying number (UIN) in your methods section and reference it including a hyperlink to it.

3) Please go through your paper and proofread it to correct spelling, grammar and syntax errors. If you need our author support services, you can access them here: <https://www.ijspg.com/services/author-support>

4. If you haven't already, please include your "highlights" which are 3-5 bullet points summarising the novel aspects and/or learning points (maximum 85 characters, including spaces, per bullet point).

5. Please add the following statement above references:

Provenance and peer review
Not commissioned, externally peer-reviewed

Review

Thank you giving me opportunity for review of this study. My comment as follows:

This study has not reached the level of being published in your valuable journal. The methodology part is very simple and it is not understood what is wanted to be done in the study. Only descriptive statistics were used in the results section. However, analysis could be made on the relationship between etiology and infection.
